- “Yes, she’s wonderful.”

2 Prepositions

Barbara attends an English course at the VHS. She wants to learn English because her friend Emma lives in London and she plans to visit her. Read her e-mail to Emma and fill in the prepositions in / at / on.

The image shows a screenshot of an email client window titled "New Message". The window has a standard Mac OS-style title bar with three window control buttons (red, yellow, green) on the left and a close button on the right. Below the title bar, there are two input fields: "To:" with the email address "emma412@aol.com" and "Subject:" with the text "meeting in London?". The main body of the email contains the following text:

Dear Emma,

Thank you for your e-mail. It's so nice to hear about London _____ (1) the spring. It sounds lovely! Do you often walk in Hyde Park _____ (2) the weekend?

Yes, my English course is great! My teacher's name is Jim and he's from New Zealand. We meet twice a week, _____ (3) Tuesday and Thursday, and sometimes we meet _____ (4) the weekend for a drink in the Irish Pub. It's a nice idea, we can speak English together! The classes are very interesting, too, but they are hard work. We begin _____ (5) 5.30 p.m. and finish _____ (6) 7.45 p.m. I leave work early and get to the VHS _____ (7) 5.25 p.m. (if there are no traffic jams), so I'm normally a little bit stressed before the class starts!

_____ (8) the evening, after class, I try to learn the new words and do my homework. The problem is, I am usually so tired. I have no time _____ (9) Monday or Wednesday because – as you know – I sing in a choir and we practise then. That's why I plan to do a language course in Cambridge _____ (10) Easter. I'm really excited about it and I hope we can meet. Are you free _____ (11) Easter Sunday? Perhaps we can meet in London and have dinner together? The next day, _____ (12) Easter Monday, I want to go to Oxford for a short visit. Do you want to come with me?

Let me know if you have time.
Looking forward to seeing you,
Barbara
